Re-elected SOCIAL CREDIT Battle River-Camrose

JAMES A. SMITH
SOCIAL CREDIT
Battle River-Camrose
James A. Smith, former member of parliament, was re-elected for Battle River-Camrose constituency on Monday by a handsome majority over his Liberal opponent, Carl S. Heckbert, Progressive-Conservative, Clifford Smutwood and Harold Rolseth, C.C.F.
The Progressive Conservatives made a surprising showing and may form the next federal government with the Social Crediters and C.C.F. holding the balance of power. This is not a satisfactory condition and another election may be held in a few months if a crisis arises.

The Legion Hall was used as the Poll for the voting at Irma for the Federal election on June 10, with Mr. A. C. Charter, B.O. and Mr. H. Riley poll clerk. The ballots cast were as follows:

Smallwood, P.C. 98
Smith, Social Credit 82
Rolseth, C.C.F. 27
Heckbert, Lib. 21

At Alliance Church On Sunday

George Ross, outstanding musician, will appear this Sunday morning in the Irma Alliance Church at 11:30, in which service he will be giving a short sacred concert.
Mr. Ross was awarded the Justice Brown Memorial Shield and Scholarship in this year's province-wide music festival in Saskatchewan in which competition he entered as a baritone soloist in Class A. Last year he was also awarded top honors in the Annual Festival competing as tenor soloist in Class B. During the district-wide youth conference this spring at the Canadian Bible College, which Mr. Ross attended, he was bass soloist in the St. Paul Oratorio presented by the college choir. He also had the outstanding honor of appearing in "Stairs for Stars" sponsored by the Regina Kinmen. During his studies at CBC he conducted the city's Alliance Sacred Chorus. At present he is a soloist and song leader in the Greater Wainwright Crusade which is being held each evening (except Saturdays) through the 23rd at 8:00 on week-nights and 7:30 on Sundays. Following these services Mr. Ross will be taking a pastorate in Ontario.

Card of Thanks
I would like to take this opportunity to thank all my friends and neighbors who sent me cards, fruit and gifts for the baby while I was in the hospital with our new son. Thanking you all most sincerely.

Irma Ladies Attend Deanery Conference

On Monday, May 27, Mesdames G. Coulman, Meakins, F. Thurston and R. Thurston attended the annual Deanery Conference of the Anglican Church at Edmonton. There were approximately 50 ladies in attendance. Six for however Edmonton Diocesan Officers, also the Rural Dean Rev. V. Cole from Tofield and Rev. J. Flagler from Wainwright were present.
At 11:30 a.m. Corporate Holy Communion was celebrated by Rev. J. Flagler and Rev. V. Cole. A delicious luncheon followed in the Masonic Hall served by the Eastern Star ladies.
The conference opened at 2:00 p.m. The theme was "Whatever ye do to word or deed do it in the Name of the Lord Jesus". Branch reports were given by Tofield, Rodino, Irma, Heath, Wainwright and Edmonton. A group from Ribstone also gave a report on a Sunday School group that had been started there. Much credit was given these ladies on their splendid effort.

Mrs. Hammett, Diocesan president, expressed her appreciation of the work done by all of the branches in her address. The Diocesan officers addresses were very helpful.
The meeting was closed with prayers conducted by Rev. V. Cole. A lovely lunch was served at the home of Mrs. D. Sawyer which brought a very enjoyable day to a close.

EASTERLY ECHOES

MERGER OF LARGE CO-OPERATIVES IN OFFING

An announcement regarding the merger of two of Alberta's large farmer co-operatives has been made. The boards of directors of the Alberta Wheat Pool and the Alberta Seed Growers' Cooperative have reached agreement on a proposal by which the Wheat Pool would take over responsibilities and properties of the Seed Growers' association. This was made known in a statement issued jointly by the two organizations.

A special meeting of the Alberta Wheat Pool delegates to be held in Calgary on June 12 at which time the proposal will be presented to them for final ratification.
Details of the transaction and the state of transfer have not been announced. These will be made public as soon as final arrangements have been made. It is expected the Alberta Wheat Pool will be able to take over operation of the seed business in time to handle the coming crop.
The Alberta Wheat Pool is a large grain marketing co-operative with a membership of nearly 50,000 and with over 500 country elevators located throughout Alberta. The Alberta Seed Growers' Co-operative has a membership in the neighborhood of 12,000 and seed cleaning facilities situated at over 30 points in the province.

Cover Crop For Pasture And Hay

Hay and pasture crops have been sown by the dry spring but there is still time for farmers to help the situation out by seeding some cover crop. Oats, clover and alfalfa make green feed for hay or silage and a mixture of oats and rye will provide a lot of late summer and fall pasture. They will also eliminate the worry about lack of winter feed and the danger of overgrazing the regular pastures. The use of cover crop usually means seeding it on what would normally be summerfallow but experiments have shown that this does not affect next years crop too badly.
Ontario Workers' Excursion
Again this year there is need for farm workers from the west to go to Ontario to help with the hay and harvest. Excursion

Selling Cattle By Rail Grade

This method of selling cattle is becoming more popular all the time and more cattle are being sold that way by farmers. There are some cases where farmers are accused of selling on a rail grade but they are not getting the grading certificate because they neglect to ask for it. As cattle are not identified as to producer ownership as hogs are, there is no way to tell who they belong to once they are sold on a rail grade. When such a request is made the identification of the animal is kept so that the government can make out the proper certificate. Other factors to consider when selling rail grade is whether the weight is actually what it is, whether the carcass is defatted before being weighed. These are things which the producer should find out about when selling cattle on this basis.

Weekly Inspirational Corner

(Sponsored by an Irma Times reader)
And He spoke this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others.
Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess. And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.
St. Luke 18:9-14.

NEIGHBORLY NEWS

C. F. GREENE

Good morning, neighbors:

Attending a weekly newspaper convention recently, we were distressed to hear that the time of our broadcast was too early for some good neighbors in certain areas of the west—due to time changes. We are not so vain as to think that these neighbors should be up in the morning to listen to us—but Grace Wright had a little poem in the Olds Gazette, Alberta, recently which does give a reason for early rising. The verse entitled "Sunrise" read:

New every morning, yet so old,
The sun rises in a rosy glow
To line the mountains white and gold,
Long before it shines below.

Yet those who do not care to rise
As early as the dawn's first light,
Must miss the glory of the skies
Uncovered by the passing night.

Can just one hour of sleep be worth
The loss of such a chance as this—
The chance to find, so rare on earth—
A moment fraught with perfect bliss?

Probably having to get up very early at times has been the experience of Mike Pohorski of Leno, Saskatchewan—the Melfort Journal states: After 40 years carrying mail, Mike Pohorski has given up the job of watching for the train, but will still be the postman, as the mail comes by truck now. Mr. Pohorski served 10 years at Trysil, Saskatchewan, 10 years at Zalica, Manitoba, and 20 years at Leno. That's forty years, and we see by the Drumheller Mail, Alberta, that the Hand Hills District Stampede is the oldest consecutively-run Stampede in Alberta and that Mrs. Leslie Flett has attended 40 Stampedes—a perfect attendance record.

Another type of record is mentioned by the Edmonton Herald, Manitoba, in its report that the other day, an interesting event took place at Melrose Junior High School when an Award of Merit certificate was presented to J. M. Hawryluk, principal, by John Bruce, chairman of the Manitoba Branch of the Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Manitoba. Mr. Bruce in thanking the pupils and the report that Bill Gust is the latest local golfer to become a member of that select group, who have scored a hole-in-one. Bill's effort deserved special mention because it was made on this particular hole. Also, Bill was a beginner last year with the club.

Another Alberta paper, the Wainwright Star gets in on this going record by stating: It is reported that our president, Ed

Worobets made a hole-in-one on the 4th hole the other day. The only thing wrong was that it was a gopher hole and not the cup. Last reports from on the spot observers say that he is still digging. Tough luck, Ed, comments the Star.

And tough luck seems to beset a certain Manitoba volunteer fire brigade. According to the Hartley Star. Last year on the night of the fireman's ball, a fire alarm sent the outfit to Ronald Atkinson's garage.

But Good Luck was the lot of a Manitoba farmer—as the result of good-neighborly spirit. The Pilot Mount Sentinel notes that one day last week, a number of friends of James Stiff gathered at his farm to assist with spring seeding operations. With nine tractors and other necessary equipment in operation, the project was completed during the day—with time off to partake of a hearty chicken dinner. Fuel for the tractors was provided by courtesy of the community's own pipeline—and much appreciated.

Before we leave the farm scene, we must pass on this story told in the Edouard, Saskatchewan. Old Ben had farmed his 300 acres for fifty years and had finally sold out. The auctioneer took his commission and lauded him and his wife the roll of bills. "Well, now," he said, "I guess you're all ready to start that trip you've been talking about so long. Where are you going first?" Ben stretched comfortably and knocked the ashes from his pipe. "Parmin has been hard work," he said, "and I figure on a real good rest right off. We aim to find one of them tourist places in the mountains. The first week I'm just gonna set up a front porch in a rockin' chair. And the second week I'm gonna start to rock."

"And I'm going to prosecute someone," declares a neighbor putting in this notice in the Watson Witness, Saskatchewan. Would the party that is interested in stripping my car at night, please return the missing parts, or, when caught will be prosecuted.—signed, J. W. Zahara, Watson.

Well, you can't strip another form of transportation—the horse—and we see by the Canadian News of Steinbach, Manitoba, that the other Sunday Mr. and Mrs. John Kohler of Rosau, River, wanted to visit their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Zacharias at Stuartburn. However, on account of a bad spot on the highway they knew they couldn't make it with the car—so they "just hitched old Dobbin to the shay," and made the trip by horse and buggy. They got there all right too, and back again, which declares the Rosau River news correspondent is more than can be said for some attempted auto trips on our spring roads.

"Old Dobbin and The Shay" were very familiar to those old timers recently celebrating birthday anniversaries in the gay nineties class. S. S. Grandjean of Lousana, Alberta, 90—John Sharpe of Elva, Manitoba, 91—R. H. Furse of Merritt, British Columbia, formerly of Neepawa, Manitoba, 88—Homer Trudway of High River, Alberta, 92—and Mrs. Alice Lyons of Mapleton, Manitoba, 85 last Sunday.

Speaking of years, the Shellbrook Chronicle, Saskatchewan, reports that Miss Ann Shiering of Durban, South Africa, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Sophie Beckmeyer, and family. It is 31 years since the sisters last saw each other.

And what a sight faced a certain school teacher, according to this report in the Rapid City Reporter. Miss Margaret White having consented to the girls wearing slacks to school, one of the boys asked the question: "If the girls wore slacks, could the boys don skirts?" Miss White, little dreaming that she would happen, agreed that it would be fair. On the last day of school before the Easter holidays after the dinner hour, Freddy Edwards, Ken McCoy and Skippy Wright were observed in skirts. They also had on their usual attire, with pant legs rolled up out of sight.

And this scene in a farmyard is not quite a sight, too. The Westlock Witness, Alberta, tells us that a motherly old sow on the farm of Mr. Louis Kaufman in the Clyde district had raised a fine family to weaning age. Another sow had a young litter but failed to supply them with milk so the motherly old gal took over and hungry young ones and is doing a fine job of nursing them along. This is indeed unusual in the raising of pigs.

You can't make a silk purse out of a sow's ear, they say—but you can make your town beautiful—if you really want to. For example the Virden Empire-Advance, Manitoba, hopes that Virden's 75th Anniversary Flower, the scarlet flame giant dubia sinia (red sinia for short) will be blooming in the gardens of the town and district during the week of July 21 to 26, 1957. This is indeed a beautiful flower, the background of the celebration. Zinnia seed, donated by Lindenberg Bros. Ltd. of Brandon, has arrived and is available for those who promise to plant the flowers around homes and business places.

Two 60th wedding anniversaries were noted in last week's papers—the Coronation Review reporting that of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kilborn of the Federal district—and the Swift Current Sun, Saskatchewan, referring to the 60th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Seddes, former resident of Swift Current, now living in Rouleau.

Coming back to our mention of the horse and buggy days—Tribute to the Village Smithy, written by Isobel Brannan, is printed in the Hanna Herald, Alberta. It is a tribute to W. R. Anderson, resident in Craignayle since 1914 celebrated his 74th birthday April 15. Nothing outstanding about that; we have old residents. However, we do not have a resident who has been in the local smith business as Mr. Anderson has been and still is, after 60 years. Yes, you can still find Bill, as he is known to a host of friends, pounding the anvil, awakening memories of the horse and carriage age. For the residential farmer still uses plowshares sharpened and welded done. To this village blacksmith, we pay high tribute. Bill Anderson and men like him have paved the way by hard work, untiring effort and great sacrifice to make our Canada the great country it is. We offer our most humble thanks and to Bill Anderson we say "well done!"

The old and the new meet in this little note from the Village Press, Saskatchewan. Donald Scott of the Scott district, while out vating one of his fields last Tuesday, found a perfect Indian hammer head. The same day he also found one of his own hammers that he lost three years ago in the same field.

Another old thing turned up in the Duck Lake district, Saskatchewan. According to the Eastern News, when an old home was torn down recently on the Duck Lake reserve the working men found in one wall of the house a cheque of the Bank of British North America, dated December 31, 1908, and made out to Joe Seesequas who had endorsed the cheque. How the cheque had become lodged in the wall of the old house will probably never be explained, comments the reporter.

An explanation in advance of something else is furnished by Bill Robinson who writes a Rod and Gun column in several Manitoba weekly papers. He says: Don't be surprised if you see mallards with pink or green wings this year! Miss White, little dreaming that these are birds that have been specially where the Governor-General inspected a guard of honor composed of members of the Canadian Legion and Legion Auxiliary, Boy Scouts, Girl Guides, Cubs, etc. The children were assembled in the square and after introduction to members of the council, education and church officials, he was escorted to the platform, where Mayor Caskey read and then presented the address of welcome.

The party then proceeded by car to the Memorial Hall square,

In replying, His Excellency remarked on his knowledge of Melfort and his pleasure in being able to visit here. He said he had a keen interest in the town as his son, Lionel Massey, now his secretary, had some 10 years ago, made a number of visits to Melfort.

Speaking to the children in a humorous vein he commented that he believed they enjoyed it so much, he would ask that they be permitted to attend school on Saturdays. However, concluding he reversed this opinion, and felt they would prefer a holiday instead. He then asked Mayor S. B. Caskey to grant a full day holiday to the school children, to be known as "The Queen's Holiday," a practice which the Queen's representative makes a first visit to a community. This announcement was met with loud cheers.

The assembled school children sang two songs, and the Melfort Citizens' Band played "God Save the Queen" and "O Canada".

The vice-regal party then left for the Nursing Home, where Mr. Massey met some of the guests in the home. The tour continued past Brunswick school and returned to the station. At the station, Mr. Massey visited with the crowd on the platform, and stood waving from the back-platform, as the train pulled out for Saskatoon.—The Journal, Melfort, Sask.—May 16, 1957.

STITCH IN TIME

The quick work of a trained First Aider at the scene of an accident may save the life of an injured person. Before the doctor comes, it is often necessary to arrest hemorrhage quickly or to prevent well-meaning onlookers from moving the victim. Without the First Aider's help, the injured may die. This lifesaving skill is easily acquired by taking First Aid courses with the local civil defence organization or St. John Ambulance.

Finally, a school story in the pincher Creek Echo, Alberta. "Daddy, I'm a young lad," my teacher wants me to prove that the white man is superior to the Indian. Can you help me? "Don't think so," replied Daddy. "When the white man took over the country the Indians were running it. There were no taxes. There was no national debt. The women did all the work. How could you improve on a system like that?" And with that—well say, good morning neighbors, and keep smiling.

Spray Weeds Early

It has been found that weeds do most damage, in competition with growing crops, during the early stages of growth. For this reason farmers usually plan to start spraying about June 1st or very shortly afterwards. In control of broad leaved weeds the choice lies between two types of spray, 2,4-D for wheat and barley, and MCP for oats, flax and legume crops. At the same time, TCA may be used for narrow leaved weeds such as green foxtail in flax. Whichever product is used, it is important to follow the instructions carefully.

Journey to Hawaii

by Mrs. A. P. Firkus

One afternoon we took in the Hawaii Cane program which originated that day under a very large Banyan tree in the Moana Banyan Court, along Walkiki Beach. This program is heard on the Dominion Network in Canada. The master of ceremonies introduced two celebrities, the writer Faith Baldwin and Mandrake the Magician.

This day was also a very eventful one as this day the islands were damaged by the tidal waves. Where we stayed there was no damage but while we watched the Hawaii Cane we could see the best of the tidal wave and the large ships and the yachts out in deep water to avoid damage from the waves. The Lurline clocked 6 hours late due to the waves. We took a drive to the north side of the island and it was heart-breaking to see all the damaged homes. One can hardly imagine that the force of the waves could push homes and destroy them as we saw them. Some homes were pushed across the highway and into the cane fields for hundreds of yards.

One afternoon we had the pleasure of going out to a banana plantation and Ambrose chopped down a banana tree and I got mixed down in the musk much to everyone's amusement but my own. When a bunch of bananas is ready to be picked, the whole stalk is chopped down and a new tree comes from the root for future bananas. They need a great amount of water and generally grow in muck along the mountain slopes and they have a large purplish red flower the shape of a heart. Some varieties are very tall, about 15 feet, but the Chinese bananas are short, about 6 to 8 ft. All along the highways you see flowers growing, especially the hibiscus and a lot of wild-morning glories. The hibiscus is the flower emblem for Hawaii.

There are great hedges of the cleander plants which really bloom profusely here and the coconut palm are very nice.

This day we took a trip to tour the Hawaiian Pineapple Canning Co., which is the world's largest fruit canner, and is the home of famous Dole brand pineapple. Annually they pack more than 300,000,000 cans of pineapple products. It was a very interesting tour which took us through the whole plant and we saw the famous Ginaca machines which remove cores, shells and end from the pineapple. Each machine handles 105 pine a minute. From there the shells and cores are sent to the use for juice and women trim the fruit of any imperfection and the fruit is sliced automatically and packers sort fruit into various grades for canning.

Then it is filled with syrup, processed and cooled in large cooling rooms. Never saw so many cans of pineapple before. Above the plant is a very large pineapple-shaped tower, which holds 100,000 gallons of water and can be seen for a long way. There are quite a few by-products of the pineapple industry. There is a machine called the Ion Exchange Plant which recovers natural sugar from the by-products. They produce 8,000 tons of sugar from them. Another by-product is made into pig feed and the outer shells are ground into bran for Hawaii's cows. Cattle acid is another by-product. We were given all the juice we wanted to drink and could eat all the choicest sliced pineapple.

Wildcat well in Reston district

The first wildcat well in the Reston district in over a year is scheduled to be drilled in the near future on the NW 1/4, 29-7-27, three miles north and one mile west of Reston. The land and mineral rights are owned by Calvin Caldwell.

The new test is being drilled by California Standard on a farm-out from Sun Oil.

An unconfirmed report also has a wildcat test on the farm occupied by Fred Hares in the Ewart district. This will also be a California Standard test.

It is expected that drilling of the Caldwell well will commence when the road ban is lifted.—The Recorder, Reston, Man.—May 9/57.

HALF INCH OF RAIN RECEIVED HERE

There was close to a quarter inch of rain here Thursday night, the first moisture since run-off of snow. It was election day last year, June 20 when the dry spell was relieved. Further moisture now would be acceptable but, nothing so far is suffering.

Seeding is about finished with the old farmer having early seeded fields showing by nicely. An eight degree of frost one night last week cut down some fields that were well above the ground.—The Times, Macklin, Sask., May 22, 1957.

NO ONE WAS HURT—This crash occurred just east of Mooseomin in the grey light of dawn, leaving two cars complete wrecks, but leaving no more than light injuries on seven persons in the cars. One car was driven by James Boles, of West Killam, who was going east. The other car, heading west, was driven by Detrick Hildebrand, of Herbert, Sask. With Mr. Boles were his wife, Mr. and Mrs. F. Rasmussen and two children.

It costs money to outfit policeman

It costs taxpayers well over $300 to put a police constable on the beat. This was made evident at council meeting Monday when an issue for equipment for a new rookie constable was approved.

This is the list of things required: buffalo coat, $110; raincoat, $25; four shirts, $16; one .38 calibre revolver, $67; 1 cap badge, plain clothes badge, $4m. Brown belt, pistol holster, cartridge carrier, handcuff case, pair handcuffs, fur cap $70.75.

In addition he is also issued with uniforms, caps, pea jacket and other unspecified equipment. As these were on hand, no costs for them were included in the approved listing.

In this case the equipment was for Earl Stanley McMurtrey, whose appointment to the police staff was approved, effective immediately.—The Sun, Swift Current, Sask.—May 8, 1957.

The average adult's stomach, when emptied and contracted, is not much larger than his index finger.

Big business in sales of car licenses

One of the boomingest businesses these days in the booming city of Estevan is the sale of license plates for passenger automobiles and trucks.

According to the limited and definitely over-worked staff at the Court House where the licenses are sold, they are so busy with vehicle licenses they don't have time to do the regular work properly.—The Mercury, Estevan, Sask.—May 16, 1957.

WOMEN'S WORK

Mrs. S. B. Neles, Provincial Supervisor of the Red Cross Workrooms in Regina reported that two shipments have been sent overseas to the International Red Cross since the first of May. On May 2nd a shipment of 11 cases was dispatched to Turkey containing layettes, baby clothes, sheets and pillow cases. On May 10th two cases of quilts were shipped to Austria. These articles were all made by volunteer women throughout Saskatchewan and packed by volunteers in the Provincial Workrooms in Regina.

VALLEY THIRSTS FOR WATER FACT FINDING MISSION TOLD

Water use in the Red River Valley was being doubted if it could be piped into the towns, villages and farms of the valley, the fact-finding mission representing the Arthur Little Company of Boston was told in Morris Friday evening.

And this was on the basis of present population. With water in the valley for commercial and domestic consumption it was predicted that the population would increase ten-fold from the present 40,000 residents of the valley.

The three representatives of the Arthur Little Company toured the Valley for four days and found a thirst for water. They visited Alton, Winkler, Carleton Place and Morris. Water, they were told, was the one essential element needed for the continued growth of the

New salary schedule for county teachers

The salary schedule of teachers in the County of Nevel for 1957-58 has now been signed by officials of the teachers association and the county. The basic salary is raised from $2,200 to $2,400 and provision is made in the schedule for sixth year training. A slight increase also is made in the amounts paid to principals and vice-principals for supervision.

It is estimated that the increase in the salary schedule will increase the expenditure on teachers' salaries by some $30,000.

Start R.H. school

The new school at Rolling Hills is underway and will be completed this fall. There will be nine rooms plus gymnasium, lab and so on; it is hoped that classrooms will be ready for occupancy on Sept. 1.

At Rosemary two County School Committee is now proceeding with plans for building a new school at Rosemary and it is expected that tenders will be called in the near future. Plans call for a seven room building plus gymnasium, lab, shop, home economics and so on. County expects it will have to borrow $100,000 to help pay the cost. Budget: $460,679.

The estimate of revenue and expenditure for school purposes in the county was passed last week and amounts to $660,679. The school board has increased by 10 mills over 1956 and now stands at 27. Increase is accounted for by increase in teachers' salaries and government grant decrease of some $50,000 owing to change in assessment structure.

Steps are being taken by the county to find out the advisability of adopting the new textbook rental plan.—The Bulletin, Brooks, Alta.—May 16, 1957.

$5,000 House trailer lost

Mr. L. James, foreman of PFRA construction crew, while en route to resume work in the Heart's Hill community pasture, had the misfortune to lose a $5,000 house trailer by a freak accident. Striking a bump in the highway east of Regina it took to the air landing on its top, completely demolishing the trailer, along with everything in it.

Mr. James is in charge of a large crew who are now engaged in building a 28 x 34 foot cottage residence for the pasture manager, Mr. W. Feaser and family.

On a visit to the site we noted that finishing touches were being given to the barn, garage, chicken house and granary. Corral will take care of all stock requiring special attention. The entire project will be patterned on a model farmstead plan.—The Times, Macklin, Sask.—May 22, 1957.

Cat moults fur hide and grows another

Calves and lambs with two heads, fish with no tails, jet skunks... When it comes to odd animals, the Eastern Irrigation District certainly has its share.

One day recently Hans Liljeholm of Schandau picked up the family cat, an Angora type, and discovered that its fur was coming loose along the under side of its tummy. A couple of days later the note was loosening at the legs also and pink flesh was exposed. It wasn't long before the cat looked like a rag doll with its hide flapping away.

One morning Hans discovered the discarded cat hide in the yard—and there was Mr. Cat in pink hide with fur only at its neck, legs and tail.

Hans tells us the cat suffered not at all. It started to grow fur again and now is completely covered with fine hair.—The Bulletin, Brook, Alta., May 16, 1957.

NEIGHBOURLY NEWS C.B.C.

C. F. GREENE

Good morning, neighbors:

We don't know which bed you got out of this morning—but D. W. Mc—writing in the Manitoba Echo, Manitoba—comments: The British Medical Association stated recently that one of the secrets of happy marriage is the use of the double bed. Far be it from me to take issue with so august a body of gentlemen who, no doubt, know much about such things. But have they tried the double bed routine during one of our lusty Canadian winters—especially in houses that lack central heating? Laboratory tests have shown that the average woman has a nocturnal foot, colder than the average man. And knowing this, does the sweet one think of keeping her feet to herself? Oh no. At first opportunity, usually when hubby eludes wearily into bed after tiding the fires for the night, airing the dogs, winding the clock, and turning out the light—all the while expecting cozy warmth of the blankets—his wife's strikes suddenly, like someone plunking you in the small of the back with a bag of wet ice cubes. It's no laughing matter to say the least, concludes D.W.M.

Nerve-racking might be a term used to apply to this news item in the Qu'Appelle Progress. Saskatchewan Mr. and Mrs. Jim Robb of the Springbrook district, are having trouble trying to eradicate a skunk from his winter quarters under their verandah. "Careful Jim," warns the reporter, "don't let him get the best of you."

Three girls in Saskatchewan were not so careful—according to the Tisdale Recorder's Bjorkdale district correspondent who writes: My young daughter is a real nature lover, so during the Easter holidays when she and two of her chums thought of picknicking in the woods of an afternoon, enthusiasm over-ruled discretion. It never occurred to me that they couldn't distinguish between the Easter bunny and a skunk! Of course Mr. Robb, and though the girls stated that they chased him through the woods, the concluding evidence which accompanied them home convinced us all he certainly had chased them!

Here's a young girl who is described by the High-River-Times, Alberta, as a "good luck girl". Eleven-year-old Judy McIlverie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie McIlverie, went last Saturday with her parents to visit her sister, Mrs. Campbell at Fort McLeod. They decided to go to the bingo game in MacLeod that evening, and

ROUGHRIDERS POPULAR TACKLE RETURNS TO FOLD

Another perennial all-star choice in Canadian professional football, Martin Ruby has signed a contract to play his seventh season with the Roughriders. One of the most popular players ever to wear the Green and White, Big Ruby came to Riders in 1951, after playing pro ball in the U.S. with the Brooklyn Dodgers and the New York Yankees. An easy-going, soft-spoken Texan, Ruby operates a filling station in Regina and makes his home here the year round. Six-foot-four and weighing 285 pounds, Ruby was the only player named to both the offensive and defensive all-star teams in the West last year.

MY NAME (Please Print)

ADDRESS

Judy won a 1957 two-door sedan, a gem of a car in green and white. An older boy in Manitoba won something worthwhile too — the Transcona News reporting that excitement was great in the Haack household on Tuesday night when a telephone call from Brandon advised George "Buddy" Haack that he was the lucky winner of a Thunderbird cottage, a Peterborough motorboat and a 7 1/2 horse power Johnston motor. Also included in the prize was a lot upon which the cabin will be built and upon completion the ownership transferred to "Buddy".

A very pleasant surprise for Buddy—and we see by Bill Robinson's hot red sun column in Manitoba weeklies, that the Maxwell family at Erickson were very surprised on looking out of their window the other morning, and a herd of 20 elk in their yard.

Wild animals seem to like yards, as we see by the Ecclestone Examiner, Alberta, that just recently, John Shippett, junior was taken by surprise when he saw a cow moose with twin calves enter through the yard gate and one week later Charlie Shippett saw a male moose. By this time these animals should have had ample time to return to their familiar woods in the west country.

"You talk about retraining," says the Wilkie Press, Saskatchewan, "listen to this." Our Mrs. Ted Gammon states the same thing. Robin returns to their yard year after year. For five years now they have placed his favorite tidbit of raisins at their back porch and he is so tame he walks right in and helps himself. The robin arrived in their back porch last week and Mrs. Gammon says he brought a very cute wife along; much superior to last year's, who was rather scruffy. Mrs. Gammon believes this may have been because he came alone last year and had to take what he could get after he arrived.

And here are three neighbors who were very pleased to take what they got—at a cut in cribbage. Holding perfect 29—hands recently were Roy Fox of Stettler, Alberta, Huggitt of Drummond Creek, Saskatchewan—and Bert Purvis of Holland, Manitoba.

Turning to outdoor recreation, the Minnesota Tribune, Manitoba, published a photograph of Strathclair's first hockey team 51 years ago. It is interesting to note that all the members of the team are living today. Another interesting point was, there were three sets of brothers in this team. Their names are: J. Cummins, R. J. Black, J. M. Black, Cliff Cummins, Ad Manson, "Tiny" Little and Don Manson.

Speaking of more than 51 years ago, here is our 90-and-over birthday anniversary role this week. Mrs. Mary Hart of Moosemin, Saskatchewan, 90—Anton Schmaltz-bauer of Loversna, Saskatchewan, 90—Bill McRae of Broderick, Saskatchewan, 91—J. M. Fry of Hartney, Manitoba, 92—Mrs. Mary Payton of Rimbey, Alberta, 92—Mrs. C. A. McAllister of Lomond, Alberta, 94—Mrs. E. McDonald of Rosestown, Saskatchewan, 95—Mrs. Crawford of McKague, Saskatchewan, 95—Mrs. J. T. Hollingshead, formerly of Stettler, Alberta, now in Edmonton, 96—R. W. Parsons, formerly of Neepawa, Manitoba, now in Edmonton, 97, and at the top of the birthday honor role this week, Mr. William Henry Walden of St. James, Manitoba, who last Thursday celebrated his 100 birthday anniversary. Mr. Walden came to Canada in 1877, was a member of the North-West Mounted Police and later farmed in the Swan Lake district. We understand that, to quote from a letter, "Mr. Walden never misses our Neighbory News program." We hope that this morning is no exception—many happy returns of the day to you, Mr. Walden.

Congratulations to you fine old-timers from your neighbors on the prairies—and the same to you four couples celebrating noteworthy wedding anniversaries. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Cayo of Shellbrook, Saskatchewan, your 6th—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown, formerly of Kipling, Saskatchewan, now in New Westminster, British Columbia, your 60th—Mr. and Mrs. John Hartney, formerly of Waseley, Saskatchewan, now in Mission City, B.C., your 64th—and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McDowall of Pincher Creek, Alberta, your 69th wedding anniversary.

You couples will be sympathetic we feel sure when you hear about this comment by Dorothy Ridge in the Regina Times, Manitoba, who writes: We felt sorry for two local brides-to-be who lost their beautiful new wedding dresses in the recent Brandon fire. We know that lots of other wedding dresses are to be had, but somehow it's the first ones chosen that mean the most to any girl. Blanche and Annette, we feel sure you'll find other dresses just as beautiful, cheerfully comments Dorothy Ridge.

"Did you say, Fire?" says the Hartney Star, Manitoba, "Well, it has been said that history repeats itself. Last year on the night of the fireman's ball a fire alarm sent the brigade to the home of Harold Atkinson. This year on the morning of the fireman's ball a fire alarm sent the outfit to Ronald Atkinson's garage."

Coming back to the subject of weddings, here's an unusual Personal announcement noticed in the Beachy district columns of the Lucky Lake Broadcaster, Saskatchewan. "Bachelor" with 160 acres good land would like to make acquaintance of lady with tractor. Matrimony in mind. Please send picture of tractor."

One might say about this—"Well, now I've read everything"—which reminds us of a heading in the Watrous Manitou, Saskatchewan, which states: "Now I've seen everything." A prominent local businessman appears to be "in the money." On Monday, he was seen unloading his weekly deposit at a cashier's cage in the Royal Bank, from a giant sized shopping bag, which made Al Burke remark, "I've seen everything now."

That's probably what a Manitoba School Teacher thought, according to this report in the Rapid City Reporter—which states: It looks as though the school staff will have to acquire a Solomon. Miss Margaret Wilkie consented to the girls wearing slacks to school and one of the boys asked the question: If the girls were slacks, could the boys don skirts. Miss Wilkie, little dreaming that it would happen, agreed that it would only be fair. On the last day of school before the Easter holiday after the dinner hour, Freddy Edwards, Ken McCoy and Skippy Wright were observed in skirts. They also had on their usual attire, with pant legs rolled up out of sight.

A Saskatchewan lady would like a certain animal out of her sight to judge by this announcement in the Kelvington Radio. "Will the party who owns the stray pig at my place, please come and get same. Damages must be settled for, and the cost of this advertisement, signed Mrs. Eugene Walters, North of tracks, Kelvington.

You can't make a milk pail out of a sow's ear, they say—but you can make your town beautiful, you really want to—For example, the Virden Empire-Advance, Manitoba, tells us that Virden's 75th Anniversary Flower, the scarlet flame giant dahlia zinnia (red zinnia for short) will be blooming in the gardens of the town and district during the week of July 21 to 26 lending a note of brilliant color to the background of the celebration. Zinnia seed, donated by Lindenberg Bros. Ltd. of Brandon, has arrived and is available free to those who promise to plant the flowers around homes and business places.

We feel sure that in many homes today, there is a vase of flowers with a card "With Love To Mother"—because today is Mother's Day—about which the Carberry News-Express, Manitoba says: Sunday, May 12th is Mother's Day, according to the calendar and we are glad we can call it a calendar date for we wouldn't want mother to think that we just have one day in the year to consider her in a special way. Mothers are indeed worthy of everyday loving consideration and it seems to us that "Mother's Day" is an empty thing and an outward show if we bestow on her that day gifts and sentimental messages, but have not remembered her in little thoughtful ways each day of the year. This one day should be a very ADMIRER HEARD—Tom Wilkie, (right) editor and publisher of the Killarney Guide, admires Rundle McLaughlin's beard during the recent convention in Winnipeg of the Manitoba division, Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association. happy occasion when we remind her 'specially of our year long love and consideration of her. We hope that this Mother's Day will be the happiest yet for all mothers and their sons and daughters. This is our sentiment too. Good morning neighbors and keep smiling.

Outstanding show contracted for fair

What Bob Di Paolo terms "probably the finest grandstand show I have ever presented" will be brought to the Humboldt Agricultural Fair this year.

The executive committee of the Humboldt and District Agricultural Society met with Mr. Di Paolo, manager of K.B.D. Enterprises of Edmonton recently and completed a contract with him for this year's show.

While not too much is known of the various acts, Mr. Di Paolo said the show will include two outstanding comedy acts who were sensations on the Class A fair circuit a few years ago. It will be exactly the same show as is presented at Swift Current, Medicine Hat and many other of the larger centres on the fair and rodeo circuit.

There will be two performances each night and the final performance will be climaxed with a monster fireworks display.

At a meeting of Agricultural Society last Friday, President Daniel Locher reported that the Swan River Racing Association would bring 40 horses to take part in the two-day racing program. Pari mutuels will be in operation and this is expected to be an even more popular feature this year.

Arrangements are also being made for Shetland Pony races. At the recent Saskatoon Light Horse Show, the Shetland Pony races were one of the highlights. There will be at least five teams of the ponies taking part in the churist races and this attraction will be presented in front of the grandstand between running races each day.

The Society also agreed to accept a new trophy offered by Massey-Harris and will be used for the 4-H Hider Project. It was regretted that the offer of the trophy could not be included in the Fair Prize list for this year since the book is already printed. —The Journal, Humboldt, Sask., May 9, 1957.
